

Announcing the launch of

Global Pediatrics

A new open access journal from Elsevier

Global Pediatrics is an international open-access journal that publishes peer-reviewed pediatric research in all aspects of health care in infants (including fetal and neonatal development), children, and adolescents. Global Pediatrics seeks to publish multidisciplinary original work ranging from basic to clinical from around the globe and as such, aims to serve clinicians and researchers in addressing the ongoing topics in the field of pediatric medicine.

EDITORS:

Giuseppe Buonocore, MD
University of Siena, Siena, Italy

Areas of Interest: Early identification of new born & high risk brain damage, Oxidative stress, and Neonatal diseases

Bo Sun, MD, PhD
Children's Hospital of Fudan University, Shanghai, China

Areas of Interest: Neonatal-perinatal medicine, Pediatric respiratory and critical care medicine journals.elsevier.com/global-pediatrics